Dear Sir/Madam,

Apropos the captioned subject, we are pleased to inform that Team KP Energy is amongst the first private players in the industry to adopt the unique upgraded system for better accuracy, reduced uncertainty and faster wind statistics availability.

Company has actively considered and placed purchase order for Windcube, Light Detection and Ranging (LIDAR) technology for accurate wind resource assessment and analysis, site suitability, site calibration and power curve measurements. With its unique features, the technology will contribute in evolution of operational continuity in wind assessment of site with higher system uptime and vertical - horizontal exploration of wind data.

This is for your information and records.

Thanking you,
Yours faithfully,
